HOW CLEVER ARE YOU??

$$\begin{aligned} \text{🍏} + \text{🍏} + \text{🍏} &= 30 \\ \text{🍏} + \text{🍌} + \text{🍌} &= 18 \\ \text{🍌} - \text{🥥} &= 2 \\ \text{🥥} + \text{🍏} + \text{🍌} &= ?? \end{aligned}$$

All 5 sisters are busy in a room.
Ann is reading a book, Rose is cooking. Katy is playing chess,
Mary is doing the laundry.
What is the fifth sister doing?

$$\begin{aligned} A + A + A &= 39 \\ B + B - A &= 25 \\ 6 + C + B &= 50 \\ A + B + C &= ? \end{aligned}$$

EUROVISION FACTS

- The 60th Eurovision Song Contest in 2015 had a record number of countries in the Grand Final: 27
- In 2015 Finland's song "Aina Mun Pitää" only runs for 1 minute and 27 seconds. The shortest song in the history of the Eurovision Song Contest
- It is not allowed to have more than six people on stage (including backup singers and dancers). Until Eurovision 1971 the limit was three
- In 2004 there were 37 countries giving points, resulting in a very long voting procedure. The voting time was cut in 2006 where each spokesperson started to just announce the top three votes
- Live animals are banned from stage at Eurovision
- From 1978 to 1998 the rules stated that each country had to sing in one of their national languages
- Russia's entry "A Million Voices" from 2015 became the first non-winning Eurovision song to score over 300 points
- Australia has been in the contest three times. In the contest in 2015 Australia was invited to participate in the Grand Final, represented by Guy Sebastian. They finished 5th
- Ireland holds the record of most victories in Eurovision Song Contest: Seven victories! The six of these victories was in the 80s and 90s: 1970, 1980, 1987, 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1996
- 95 percent of the Danish viewing public saw the 2001 contest on TV - the highest percentage in Europe
- Portugal holds the record of most points in a Grand Final. In 2017 Salvador Sobral won with record breaking 758 points with the song "Amar Pelos Dois"
- Morocco has participated in Eurovision Song Contest. But only once. It was in 1980 and they ended second-last. Morocco only received points from Italy
- The first Eurovision that was broadcast in color, was the 1968 contest at the Royal Albert Hall
